Credit risk exists on and off the balance sheet, in a variety of products, activities, and services. Attend this one-day workshop to better recognize adverse trends, understand credit risk within the loan portfolio, the roles of board and management, and the reasons banks develop problems. Learn the skills you need to positively influence credit and risk management practices, how to effect change, and stay informed of changes in credit risk and risk appetite.

*Consecutive sessions with the Risk Governance, Compliance Risk, or Operational Risk workshops.

2020 OCC COMMUNITY BANK DIRECTOR WORKSHOPS

Credit Risk

Directors Can Make a Difference

- Identify reasons banks develop asset quality problems.
- Understand board and management roles in credit risk management.
- Learn how to stay informed of changes in credit risk or risk appetite.
- Learn how to effect change in credit culture.

Work with and learn from experienced OCC examiners who lead this one-day workshop, which includes discussions of best practices, lectures, and hands-on exercises designed for directors and senior management of national community banks and federal savings associations. The $99 cost includes workshop materials and lunch.

DON'T DELAY. REGISTER TODAY! The workshop is limited to the first 35 directors and senior managers who register. For complete information and to register, go to www.occ.gov/occworkshops.

After registration is confirmed, call the hotel or book online to reserve your room. Tell the hotel you are attending the OCC Director Workshop. If you encounter difficulties in making reservations, please visit www.occ.gov/occworkshops and select Contact Us for assistance.
