OTS Issued Three Enforcement Orders In January

WASHINGTON - The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) reported today that it issued three enforcement orders during January 2001, one instituting a civil money penalty and two terminating previously issued cease and desist orders. They include:

The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS), a bureau of the U.S. Treasury, regulates and supervises the nation's thrift industry. OTS's mission is to ensure the safety and soundness of thrift institutions and to support their role as home mortgage lenders and providers of other community credit and financial services.
