OTS Issued Five Enforcement Orders In June

WASHINGTON - The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) today reported that it issued five enforcement orders to three individuals and one institution during June. They are:

3. Homer Short, president, chairman and controlling stockholder of Family Bank, FSB, Paintsville, Ky., order to cease and desist for affirmative relief and an order of assessment of civil money penalty, June 20.

The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS), a bureau of the U.S. Treasury, regulates and supervises the nation's thrift industry. OTS's mission is to ensure the safety and soundness of thrift institutions and to support their role as home mortgage lenders and providers of other community credit and financial services.
