OTS Announces 81 CRA Exams Scheduled for 3rd Quarter 2002

WASHINGTON - The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) announced that 81 savings associations are scheduled for Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) examinations during the third quarter of 2002.

The schedule reflects OTS's implementation of Section 712 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, which extends the CRA examination cycle from approximately every two years to four or five years for institutions with aggregate assets of not more than $250 million and CRA examination ratings of "Satisfactory" or "Outstanding" respectively. The dates listed are subject to change. The schedule is also posted on the Internet at http://www.ots.treas.gov.

Results of CRA exams are posted monthly on OTS's web site. This will be the standard procedure for the publication of CRA results in the future. The results of the exams announced today will be posted as they become available.

The Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS), a bureau of the U.S. Treasury, regulates and supervises the nation's thrift industry. OTS's mission is to ensure the safety and soundness of thrift institutions and to support their role as home mortgage lenders and providers of other community credit and financial services.
